As played at St Mary's last Sunday by Martyn.

My heart belongs to a country and a King
Of a land I've always known but I've never seen
Some call it paradise or the land of the living
Well I call it home and I'm homesick for Heaven

I want to walk with Moses on streets of gold
And dance with David before your throne
To thank You face to face for the grace You've given
I want to see my children run into Your arms
And worship the Saviour who wears my scars
There's an ache in my heart
I'm homesick for Heaven

Fourth Sunday after Trinity - Readings

New Testament Readings

Paul's letter to the Colossians 1, 1-14.

Paul, an apostle of Christ Jesus by the will of God, and Timothy our brother,

To the saints and faithful brothers and sisters in Christ in Colossae: Grace to you and peace from God our Father.

In our prayers for you we always thank God, the Father of our Lord Jesus Christ, for we have heard of your faith in Christ Jesus and of the love that you have for all the saints, because of the hope laid up for you in heaven. You have heard of this hope before in the word of the truth, the gospel that has come to you. Just as it is bearing fruit and growing in the whole world, so it has been bearing fruit among yourselves from the day you heard it and truly comprehended the grace of God.

This you learned from Epaphras, our beloved fellow-servant. He is a faithful minister of Christ on your behalf, and he has made known to us your love in the Spirit.

For this reason, since the day we heard it, we have not ceased praying for you and asking that you may be filled with the knowledge of Gods will in all spiritual wisdom and understanding, so that you may lead lives worthy of the Lord, fully pleasing to him, as you bear fruit in every good work and as you grow in the knowledge of God.

May you be made strong with all the strength that comes from his glorious power, and may you be prepared to endure everything with patience, while joyfully giving thanks to the Father, who has enabled you to share in the inheritance of the saints in the light.

He has rescued us from the power of darkness and transferred us into the kingdom of his beloved Son, in whom we have redemption, the forgiveness of sins.

Luke 10, 25-37.

Just then a lawyer stood up to test Jesus. "Teacher", he said, "what must I do to inherit eternal life?"

He said to him, "What is written in the law? What do you read there?"

He answered; "You shall love the Lord your God with all your heart, and with all your soul, and with all your strength, and with all your mind; and your neighbour as yourself."

And he said to him: "You have given the right answer; do this, and you will live."

But wanting to justify himself, he asked Jesus: "And who is my neighbour?"

Jesus replied: "A man was going down from Jerusalem to Jericho, and fell into the hands of robbers, who stripped him, beat him, and went away, leaving him half dead.

"Now by chance a priest was going down that road; and when he saw him, he passed by on the other side. So likewise a Levite, when he came to the place and saw him, passed by on the other side.

him; and when he saw him, he was moved with pity.

"He went to him and bandaged his wounds, having poured oil and wine on them. "Then he put him on his own animal, brought him to an inn, and took care of him.

"The next day he took out two denarii, gave them to the innkeeper, and said, 'Take care of him; and when I come back, I will repay you whatever more you spend.'

"Which of these three, do you think, was a neighbour to the man who fell into the hands of the robbers?"

He said: "The one who showed him mercy". Jesus said to him: "Go and do likewise."

Sally's Reflection

Colossians 1:1-14 and Luke 10:25-37

"Heavenly Father, through weak human words, give us grace to hear your true and living Word, Jesus Christ our Lord"

I am reading a book called Orbital, by Samantha Harvey.

It is about astronauts looking down and circling earth. Six astronauts from Japan, the US, Britain, Italy and Russia. They work together and orbit the earth, across prejudices and counties. Nothing is off limits, except the toilets: the Russians insist on their astronaut having their own.

From space there are no boundaries, wars cannot be seen, only weather patterns and beauty. They are overcome with the beauty of the place they call home, the author writes: 'The earth, from here is like heaven. It flows with colour. A burst of hopeful colour.'

My understanding of the Kingdom of God is all we have to do is to look for glimpses as it breaks though, and from the perspective of space that's what they are experiencing. And yet, to us on earth and the lives we are living, as generations have lived before us, it is a time of conflict and of hate. Where divisions are drawn up, battle lines drawn, might is right and individualism, isolationism and suspicion rules.

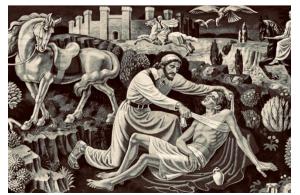

Where borders are drawn and fought over and the only people who suffer are not the people in power.

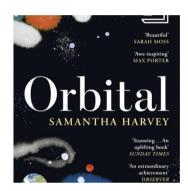

And in the midst of then and now, Jesus asks us, 'who is my neighbour'? A story we have heard for years, we know the plot and how it ends and it has become blunted for us, we have heard it so many times, we understand, but today, let us reimagine it, let us look at it from the perspective of today and our lives.

An expert in the law, the law of Moses, challenges Jesus, a test and Jesus, as he often does, answers a question with a question, what does the law say he asks?

And he quotes from Leviticus, 'You shall love the Lord your God, with all your heart, and with all your soul, and with all your strength, and with all your mind; and your neighbour as yourself.". (Easier said than done).

Then comes the story of the man who fell into the hands of robbers and was left half dead. The class of persons that go by are presented in descending order of dignity; and we see they 'see' but that they pass by. The Priest and then the Levite, their religious duties in the Temple, demand they are not contaminated from contact with the dead.

And then comes a Samaritan, hated, loathed and the audience would expect him to rob the poor half-dead man.

Instead, he 'sees' and is full of compassion, and he is the one who fulfils the duties of mercy and hospitality. He was moved with pity, bandaged him, transported him, and tended to him with wine and oil.

And he paid the innkeeper for his trouble.

And Jesus asks, 'which of these three, do you think, was a neighbour to this man?'

For the listening audience there would have been a shudder of shock, Good and Samaritan are never together. And so, the notion of neighbour has to be revised.

The Samaritan is the despised alien; he has broken through barriers and ministered to a person in need. We must let go of hatred and prejudice towards others. We must love because Jesus loved us first.

And how do we do that; it is very hard. The alien is despised, anyone who is different from us.

But in the Colossian reading where Paul reminds us, that hope is laid up for us in heaven, and we must endure with patience and joyfully give thanks at all times. And by giving thanks we must:

- * Share the Gospel;
- * Help those in need; and
- * Love our enemies.

C. S. Lewis said: "do not waste time bothering whether you 'love' your neighbour, act as if you do."

When you behave as if you love, eventually you will come love him. Amen.

ARE WE AMBITIOUS TO GROW OUR CHURCHES?

Two more opportunities for us to prepare and build our Growing in God

Growina

Benefice Mission

Plan

Rev Sally says: To begin our plan I am offering a number of evenings centred on a bible reading and prayer for reflection and discussion.

We shall have a gentle "brainstorming" to see what collectively we see the way forward for us in faith...

This is all part of the next stage of us growing our churches and will be held at the rectory on the following evenings at 7.00pm:

15 JULY, AND 22 JULY.

The last two meetings have been inspirational – with loads of enthusiasm and bright ideas. The last one was held on a sweltering evening in the Rectory garden!

All are welcome

Our Summer Spud Club
Activity Days are:
Monday 28 July and
Tuesday 29 July

From 10.00am to 3.00pm - helpers from our congregations are needed please.

can assist by getting involved.

A CHALLENGE TO RETAIN OUR EXCELLENT CHAPLAIN

Dave Owen, pastor & senior leader at Capel Community Church says:

Hi everyone

I hope that you have been able to follow the developments of Philip Morphy's first year at East Bergholt High School, and have been encouraged by the feedback of his positive contribution into the school

I just wanted to bring you all up to date regarding the financials for Philip.

His contract will end in October this year, and CYM are currently reviewing the financial support likely to be available so that they can continue to employ him for a second year.

To continue with two days a week on a term-time contract will cost us approx £12,000 for 12 months (this includes Philip's pay, employer's NI & pension contributions and all staff management overheads).

There is approx £3,000 surplus from the first year, which means that we will need to find £9,000.

Simon Scott (CYM) is investigating if those who are currently giving monthly direct to CYM are willing to continue.

It would be helpful to start conversations with our respective church boards/committees to determine the (church) level of support, and then to remind our congregations of the ongoing need for either regular or one-off gifts.

For those able to make contributions now, the best method is to send them direct to CYM.

GRANTS UPDATE

St Mary's Church,
Tattingstone awarded grant from The National

Lottery Heritage Fund

The Parochial Church Council of St Mary's Church

Tattingstone in Suffolk has been awarded a grant of £232,000 from The National Lottery Heritage Fund towards its project of making the church more accessible to all.

Lyn Tomlinson, churchwarden, explained:

"This funding will allow the PCC to embark upon their long wished for project of installing a toilet and kitchenette, levelling the floors for easy access, and complete redecoration. St Mary's will become much more welcoming and accessible, benefitting worshippers, visitors, the local school and heritage groups."

St Mary's is a Grade 2* Listed church that stands in the middle of the village and dates back to the 1200s. When Constable visited Tattingstone he made sketches of St Mary's Church which are now in the Victoria & Albert Museum.

Lyn added: "The building works are planned to commence at the end of July and be completed around December 2025.

"Our project will continue into 2026 with various Local Heritage events. There will be exhibitions, 'Have a Go' workshops such as art based activities, research into local history, local heritage walks and wildlife tours. St Mary's would warmly welcome volunteers to assist with any of these activities.

"Funding for this project is made possible through the generosity of National Lottery players, who raise £30 million each week for good causes across the UK."

Linda Smalley, churchwarden added:

"We are excited for the future and the opportunities that the church's transformation will have, thanks to support from The National Lottery Heritage Fund and National Lottery players. New facilities and easier access will equip this beautiful historic church for a bright future and will help us enhance the warm welcome the building provides for regular and new visitors alike."

Another huge success for this June's Scarecrow Trail -

Jim Hill says:

This year the number of Scarecrows increased by 4 from last year's 43 up to 47, and I have to say that I think that the overall quality was as good as, if not better than, any previous year since I've been involved with the Trail

CHILD FRIENDLY WINNER

This year we only had four Children's entry forms returned for marking!

Unfortunately none of them came close to being all correct so we decided not to give out the main prize of a bag of sweets but to award an "A" for Effort to all the children who completed their forms and handed them in, and give them all a small bag of sweets each, and they were Arlo, Sophie & Teddy, Freddie & Martha, and Megan.

I am trying to fathom the reason why we had so few returned and have come up with the following possible reasons.

- There were too many names on the list (it was nearly as long as the Main List);
- The clues were too difficult for younger children (I was asked last year to include up to 11 year olds),;
- It was just too hot.

If anyone would like to make a comment on this I would be pleased to receive them

MAIN LIST WINNER

We had four 100% correct entries returned and they were from Mark & Chloe Askew, Amy Lock, Sue Askew & Nathan Mills, and Tanya, Nasser, Ollie & Jacob De-Nijs.

We put the four Forms into "the hat" and my neighbor Phil pulled out the De-Nijs Family, so the tin of sweets went to them (pic right). Commiserations to the other three all correct entrants, and well done to everyone else who got all the way round but didn't quite manage to connect all the clues to the correct Scarecrow.

I know it was tough this year as there were three Minecraft Scarecrows, although I am told by those who know (not me) that there were sufficient physical clues on them to match them to the correct written clue.

There were also two Snowmen, but again anyone who had seen Olaf from "Frozen" singing "In Summer" (including me this time) should have been able to work that one out.

FAVOURITE SCARECROW

For a change it was obvious as soon as the entry forms started coming back that it was going to be a one horse race. The only other Scarecrow that got a slight look in was The Very Hungry Caterpillar at 2 Snowcroft with 17% of the vote, but the overwhelming winner with a whopping 70% of the vote was ET and Elliott with bike and soundtrack, (pic top of page) at 144 The Street.

So for the second year running the Ramsell Family, Kate & Sam, children Sebastian, Philippa and Thomas, Sam's Mum Debbie and Kate's Dad Colin, win the tin of sweets (pic left).

There were lots of other excellent Scarecrows which I was really surprised didn't get any votes.

If you didn't manage to get round and see them all, I will be posting photos of all the Scarecrows with their clues on Facebook Capel St Mary Noticeboard so have a look and see what you missed.

Incidentally, Kate & Sam have told me that they will not be making a Scarecrow next year, so if there are any of you Scarecrow makers out there who are feeling competitive, I know of at least a couple, now is your chance.

THANKS

particularly to everyone who made a Scarecrow, we hope you enjoyed making it and devising those sometimes torturous clues and those wonderful poetic clues (although not too many of the latter next year please as it's difficult to fit them on the entry form), and also to all those who braved the heat and took part in the Trail.

Thanks also to Drayton Insurance Services, Bypass Nurseries Garden Centre, and Capel Library for selling the Entry Forms, and to Capel Capers, Look Magazine, The Link, Capel St Mary, Copdock and Bentley Primary Schools, Facebook Capel St Mary Noticeboard and everyone else who puts up a poster, for their help in publicising The Trail.

Special thanks also to the team of stalwart volunteers for dispensing tea, coffee and cake on Saturday and Sunday afternoon, and to all the volunteers who made the cakes, buns and biscuits for us. Jim Hill

ST MARY'S CHURCHYARD GETS NEW COMMONWEALTH GRAVE COMMEMORATING PRIVATE EDGAR PITTOCK 1884-1917

Paul Adams says: "We were visited by a representative of the Commonwealth War Graves Commission who said that they planned to refurbish St Mary's only war grave - that of Edgar Pittock.

"However, Mel and I noticed recently that a totally new stone has been fitted and it looks terrific."

Paul pointed the LINK in the direction of Capel St Mary Memorial Website where we learnt about the soldier who lies in our churchyard.

Edgar was the son of Joseph Haste Pittock and Harriet Pittock and the husband of Agness Miles who he married in 1911 and lived in the street Capel St Mary Suffolk, Edgar was one of ten children all born in Capel St Mary.

Edgar's siblings were Charlotte born 1866, George born 1867, Ada born 1869, Alice born 1872, William born 1873, Arthur born 1875, Deborah born 1877, Alfred born 1879, Matilda born 1882, and Edgar himself born 1884. They were all educated in Capel School. After leaving school Edgar started work as a gardener and went on to become a gamekeeper prior to joining the Army.

Full military funeral comes to Capel

Edgar had enlisted in the Suffolk Regiment in July 1915 after a very enthusiastic recruiting meeting in the village. After basic training he was posted to 1st/4th Battalion of the Suffolk's and went to France with his Regiment on 18 January 1916, he was wounded by shrapnel in July and after two months in hospital in France he returned to the trenches where he contracted Pleurisy and Pneumonia and was brought back to England, on January 27th 1917. Tuberculosis set in and he died on May 11th at Ford Military Hospital Devonport.

As he had died in Ford Military Hospital Devonport from disease contracted on active service Edgar was given a full military funeral with honours. His body was carried from the hospital on a gun carriage accompanied by a military band to Plymouth station and brought by train to Capel St Mary station a firing party of the 6th Cyclists Battalion attended the procession to the grave, where three volleys were fired and the Last Post sounded, at the school the flag was flown at half-mast and the children stood outside at the salute as the cortege passed.

Edgar was posthumously awarded: The British War Medal 1914-1918 and The Victory Medal 1914 - 1919

If you look closely at the memorial you will see the Suffolk Regiment's logo and motto:

THE SUFFOLK REGIMENT

The crest of the Suffolk Regiment is a Castle and Key with the motto Montis Insignia Calpe underneath. The honour was given to the Regiment for the distinguished part it took in the siege of Gibraltar, 1779-83.

Montis Insignia Calpe means The Arms of Mount Calpe, Mount Calpe being the old Roman name for Gibraltar. The motto of the Regiment is Stabilis. This means 'to stand firm' or 'steady'.

CHRISTMAS LIGHTS SHOW AT WINDSOR & KEW

Lyn Says:

Hello all - many of you joined us in 2024 on our Christmas Light Show to Windsor & Windsor Great Park.

his year we are deviating a bit and going firstly to Windsor, which I think you all enjoyed, and then on to Kew Gardens Christmas Light Show.

It's been challenging finding a date at Kew where tickets were available alongside accommodating a coach and when prices were not sky high. So, we have arranged for Tuesday 18 November leaving Tattingstone at 9 am.

We will transfer from Windsor to Kew Gardens in time for a 17.40pm entry and intend to leave between 7.30 and 8 pm.

I'm afraid that costs have risen again so we will need to charge £60 pp and would ask for a non-refundable deposit of £30 pp to secure your place and the balance due in October. Tickets will be sold on a first come first served basis.

If you would like to reserve a place could you reply email to both Linda and myself please. Your deposit can be made by bank transfer or a cheque send to Linda – details below. I hope to see you in November if not before. All best wishes. Lyn

VIEWPOINT

Marcus Walker says: "It's time to save the parishes"

Saturday's General Synod set to discuss crucial funding question for parishes

Let me explain the situation. Back in 1997 the Church Commissioners faced potential insolvency with £3.48 billion assets against £2.2billion pension liabilities.

The settlement transferred future clergy pension obligations to dioceses via the Church of England Funded Pension Scheme.

In short the parishes (and dioceses) bailed out the Church Commissioners and by 2020, the Commissioners' funds had grown to £9.05 billion against reduced liabilities of £1.48 billion. Five years later, they now stand at a whopping £11.1 billion. The Commissioners' crisis is well and truly over.

The same cannot be said of dioceses and parishes.

Official Church figures reveal a devastating picture: 83% of dioceses are running deficits totalling £62 million in 2024, forcing parishes to sell clergy housing, create "mega-parishes" where single priests serve 10+churches, and extend vacancy periods that accelerate decline. Nearly 300 parish churches closed between 2016-2021, with 300 more planned.

There is an obvious solution to this and we, in the Save the Parish, have been collaborating with a number of bishops and diocesan secretaries - and negotiating with the national church and the Church Commissioners - to work out a new financial settlement that could, if implemented, reverse so much of the decline of the last thirty years.

What is the plan?

To bring in a Measure (a church law, with power of statute) allocating 1% of the Church Commissioners' endowment annually - out of its distributable income (so we're not dipping into the actual endowment) - to Diocesan Stipends Funds.

This would mean an extra £110 million (at this year's value) available to fund clergy stipends, salaries, and pensions.

At a stroke this would erase diocesan deficits, allowing dioceses to get back to healthy growth, and would not allow them to blow the money on wasteful central schemes.

So what is happening?

Next Saturday (12 July), the Bishops of Hereford and Bath and Wells are moving a motion (which was originally planned to be debated in February, before the next three years' funding was agreed, but it got shunted by clever moves from the centre), which will call for a measure to be introduced ensuring a transfer into Diocesan Stipends Funds of income to the value of 1% of their endowment each year.

If this motion passes, it could absolutely transform the Church's ability to preach the Gospel across our nation.

It will allow dioceses to recommit to having priests in parishes ministering the sacrament and preaching the word and being pastors to the people of their area.

As reports are coming in across the West of a revival of faith among young people, we need the Church of England to be ready to minister to anyone who turns up in their local church saying, like the Greeks in John's Gospel, "Sir, we would see Jesus."

One more thing!

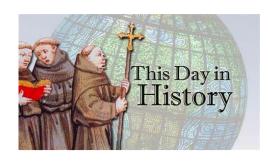

Oh, and there's one more thing: Bishops come in for a lot of stick and have to make a lot painful decisions and often get justifiably angry letters. If yours is supportive of this motion, please do show them some love. We must remember to say thank you to those bishops putting their heads over the parapet on this! (Not least the Bishops of Hereford and Bath and Wells). In Christ, Marcus Walker.

The Rev'd Marcus Walker, rector at St Bartholemew the Great in the City of London, was ordained in 2011 and served for three years in London. Born in Jerusalem, he spent his childhood in the Holy Land, Moscow and Cairo. For four years Marcus was Deputy Director of the Anglican Centre in Rome, the Anglican Communion's embassy to the Vatican. He is co-founder of the Save the Parish movement and acts as its Chairman.

What made Rev Francis Kilvert dissolve with laughter?

St Michael's Parsonage, Clyro, Radnorshire, 1872

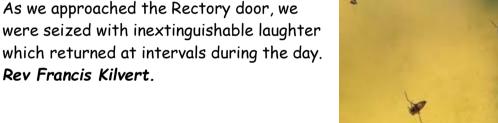

Perch and I went to spend the day at Brinkworth Rectory with the De Quettevilles.

Mrs De Quetteville pointed out to Teddy with great pride the pond of delicious water which supplied the house with drinking water.

At that moment, as she was assuring him that the water was perfectly pure, a large evet (newt) rose to the surface and stared at them while water spiders and amphibious beetles rowed about the pond.

> As we approached the Rectory door, we were seized with inextinguishable laughter

I bought a second hand time machine next Sunday.

They don't make them like they're going to anymore.

The Peartees spotted this poster in Aberdeen.

An under-cover Christian perhaps?

He must run a fish'n'chip shop!

When you go downstairs for a snack at 3.00am and smack your knee on the coffee table

Its really cool to live in the UK right now because its like the collapse of the Roman Empire but with Wi-Fi...
